

Hints for practising at home

Fashion parade

When you're out walking or on trains or buses, look at what others are wearing. Think about how you would describe their clothes. Lleva ..., means he/she is wearing ... , una camiseta blanca, un pantalón negro etc.

Spanish on television

If you've recorded* the Talk Spanish TV series, have a look at Programme 4, where you can visit a street market in Spain, see a fantastic array of fresh produce and watch someone buying some pottery for a gift. If you would like the transcript, you'll find it on bbc.co.uk/languages/spanish/talk

*Talk Spanish is repeated regularly on BBC TWO, on the Learning Zone, and you can find the programmes schedules on bbc.co.uk/learningzone.

Surfing in Spanish

To look around the Spanish department store, take a look at the website of El Corte Inglés: www.elcorteingles.es

They sell everything, even cars. What's the Oferta Destacada (special offer) today?

Try out a cash machine in Spanish. There's a simulator on the following Chilean website that enables you to follow through the instructions in Spanish. Go on, have a go. It won't debit your account! Load the page and click on Simulador.

www.redbanc.cl/portal_redbanc/browse?pagina=portal_redbanc/inicio.htm

Read, in English, all about El Rastro and about other shopping opportunities in Madrid, by looking at this website:

www.aboutmadrid.com/madrid/shopping.asp

The links on this page have been carefully selected. However, please note that Cheshire Network has no control over external sites and takes no responsibility for the content or availability of these sites or of further sites that they may link into.